

I am Astra, your phone genie.

Your phone genie.

Not a bot. Not your legacy dialer.

Astra queues the list, places the call from your number and keeps the prospect's card in front of you — while you speak. Astra is an AI agent built for outbound sales: it lines up who's next, places the call, drops the voicemail, takes the notes and books the callback. It never speaks to your buyer. You bring the conversation. She does the rest. "Astra is a game-changer." — IT sales rep who hit quota.

1 human

On every call. Astra never speaks to your prospect.

Three wishes

WISH 1 · FIND THEM

Paste anything. Get a calling list.

Spreadsheet, email thread, badge photo, forwarded intro — Astra pulls out names, companies, numbers and emails. Forward-to-Astra turns any email thread into a list with clean addresses.

WISH 2 · REACH THEM

Dial like you've got a producer in your ear.

She queues the list, places the call from your number or the team number and keeps the prospect's card and an opener in front of you. Voicemail? Drop a pre-recorded one and move on. Drive Mode on your phone.

WISH 3 · NEVER LOSE THEM

The callback you missed is the deal you keep.

A prospect rings back while you're on another call: Astra answers, saves the voicemail, puts them on your Dashboard with one button — Return call — and nudges you until you do.

One price. No tiers. No "contact sales".
